

EZ28

Compact and comfortable, the Wacker Neuson EZ28 zero tail excavators allow you to perform lateral work movements in job site applications where traditional excavators simply cannot access. The spacious cab is equipped with advanced controls and a host of advanced operator amenities.

- Compact dimensions and removable canopy easily manage low overhead clearance
- Canopy can be removed without compromising machine function
- Up to 25% savings of time and material with optional Vertical Digging System (VDS)
- Large, side-mounted engine hood and large removable chassis covers on the inside and outside provide convenient service access
- Many options, including auxiliary proportional control, counterweight

EZ28

Operating weight	6,030 lbs
Digging depth (Standard dipper stick)	100.2 in
Engine output	21.2 hp/ 15.8 kW

Compact dimensions: the EZ28 only takes up little space when transported or in applications.

Compact, powerful and versatile, the EZ28 is an all-round performer that transports easily.

Can be used in a wide variety of applications with attachments such as the demolition breaker.